

WHICH DO YOU THINK OUR TROOPS NEED MORE?

OR

WE DO NOT DELIVER CARE PACKAGES

Troops Direct is not here to make sure our troops have candy, cookies or even cards from home. We are here to provide our troops with the critically needed items that they require for their safety and for mission success. Because of government red tape, ever changing budgets and inefficient logistics, our troops cannot always get what they need, when they need it. However, when you donate to Troops Direct, they can. It may be a helmet, life support equipment, tools to defuse landmines or a pair of boots – whatever the case, Troops Direct steps up and meets the challenge. Troops Direct can supply requested items in a matter of days as opposed to months, making a dramatic difference in the lives and success of our soldiers.

“Often, military procurement goes to the lowest bidder and without asking the war fighters what equipment they need to complete the mission safely and effectively... you are making the difference and are true patriots.”

‘Your Support Makes It Happen’ is a phrase you hear often with Troops Direct because it is an absolute reality. All too often we receive letters and calls of thanks from our service members who recount how the support of Troops Direct saved a life or enabled a mission to be accomplished. These ‘heroes’ are in fact thanking you, our donors, who enabled that American service member to return home safely to their family and friends from deployments around the globe. As we look to the future, we must understand that over 2 million Americans continue to stand in uniform, ready to answer any call to anywhere and at any time. Whether a publicized deployment or a covert operation, they will lay their lives on the line in defense of you, me, our children and our nation. Troops Direct will – without fail – be there with them.

Respectfully,

TROOPS DIRECT AT A GLANCE

WHY TROOPS DIRECT? URGENT NEEDS, BUREAUCRACY AND RED TAPE

The battlespaces are dynamic and fluid environments.

- When deployed, our troops often have immediate needs - critical to their mission and safety - that cannot be met by the large military supply chain.

Massive government contracts and budgets can impede the fulfillment of proper and relevant equipment.

- Our fighting forces know what equipment is required to complete the mission better than the planners and policy makers in Washington, D.C.
- Multi-year 'one size fits all' contracts can produce equipment that becomes obsolete or unusable before government budgets allow for its replacement.

Military logistics can often slow the delivery of needed yet available supplies.

- The big military logistics system is not constructed to deliver unique or mission critical items 'on demand.' Often, troops in need must wait for a cargo plane to be scheduled to depart to their area.

WHAT OUR HEROES SAY ABOUT TROOPS DIRECT

Sergeant Jeff M.

"The support you have given me will not only help myself when running ops, but provide an extra layer of security and safety for my K9."

Sergeant John C.

"The organization you run is bar to none real support soldiers need. The bags you sent us were put to use immediately carrying about 100 pounds of weight. The equipment definitely increased our load bearing capabilities and reduced the fatigue on our war fighters."

Major Andy H.

"I understand that these items don't sound like much, but they can make a difference when out running ops."
